Who We Are

Amare Adventure Amelia Earhart Andrea Lacy is a non-profit organization that empowers young women to pursue their dreams of adventure and exploration. We believe that all young women have the potential to be leaders in their chosen fields, and we are committed to providing them with the tools and resources they need to succeed.

Our programs are designed to help young women develop the skills and confidence they need to succeed in their chosen fields. We offer a variety of programs, including:

- Mentorship programs that connect young women with experienced professionals in their field

- Training programs that provide young women with the skills they need to succeed in their field
- Resource programs that provide young women with access to the resources they need to succeed in their field

We are committed to providing our young women with the support they need to succeed. Our programs are designed to be flexible and meet the needs of our individual participants. We also provide a variety of resources to our participants, including:

- A network of mentors
- A library of resources
- A community of support

We believe that all young women have the potential to be leaders in their chosen fields. We are committed to providing them with the tools and resources they need to succeed.

Our Impact

Since our founding in 2020, we have reached over 1,000 young women. Our programs have had a significant impact on the lives of our participants. Here are just a few of the stories of our success:

- Andrea Lacy was a young woman who dreamed of becoming a pilot. Through our mentorship program, she was connected with a mentor who helped her to develop the skills and confidence she needed to succeed. Andrea is now a commercial pilot and is flying for a major airline.

- Amelia Earhart was a young woman who dreamed of becoming an explorer. Through our training program, she learned the skills she needed to survive and thrive in the wilderness. Amelia is now a world-renowned explorer and has led expeditions to some of the most remote and challenging places on Earth.
- Amare Adventure is a young woman who dreamed of becoming a scientist. Through our resource program, she was able to access the resources she needed to conduct her research. Amare is now a successful scientist and is working on a cure for cancer.

These are just a few of the stories of our success. We are proud of the impact that we have had on the lives of our young women. We are committed to continuing to provide them with the tools and resources they need to succeed.

How You Can Help

There are many ways that you can help us to continue to empower young women to pursue their dreams of adventure and exploration. Here are a few ways:

- Donate to our organization
- Volunteer your time
- Spread the word about our organization

Your support will make a difference in the lives of young women. Thank you for your support.
