Defying Hitler: Short Stories by Tom Dulaney is a collection of powerful and moving stories about the human spirit's capacity for resilience and courage in the face of adversity. Set against the backdrop of World War II and the Holocaust, these stories shed light on the extraordinary bravery and determination of ordinary people who risked their lives to fight against tyranny and oppression.

Through vivid prose and unforgettable characters, Dulaney brings to life the experiences of those who lived through one of the darkest chapters in human history. The stories in this collection explore a wide range of themes, from the horrors of the concentration camps to the small acts of kindness that helped people survive. They are a testament to the unyielding spirit of humanity, even in the face of unimaginable suffering.

Here is a brief overview of each of the stories in the collection:

- The Hiding Place: A young Jewish girl hides in a secret attic for two years to escape the Nazis.
- The Resistance Fighter: A Polish man joins the underground resistance movement to fight against the German occupation.
- The Kindertransport: A group of Jewish children is evacuated from Germany to England on the eve of the war.
- The Holocaust Survivor: A woman who survived the Auschwitz concentration camp tells her story.
- The Liberation: A group of Allied soldiers liberate a concentration camp and witness the horrors that have been committed.

These stories are not easy to read, but they are essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the human condition. They are a reminder of the darkness that can exist in the world, but they are also a testament to the power of hope and courage. Defying Hitler: Short Stories by Tom Dulaney is a must-read for anyone interested in World War II, the Holocaust, or the human spirit.
