The Night Lords' defection to Chaos was a complex and tragic event that has shaped their destiny ever since. Driven by a twisted sense of justice and a desire for vengeance, they turned their backs on the Imperium and embraced the dark powers of Chaos. However, their alliance with the Ruinous Powers came at a terrible price. The Night Lords were forever tainted by the warp, their souls corrupted by the whispers of the dark gods.

Konrad Curze: The Night Hunter

At the heart of the Night Lords Legion lies their enigmatic primarch, Konrad Curze. Known as the Night Hunter, Curze was a deeply troubled and complex figure. Haunted by visions of his own death and plagued by a profound sense of injustice, he developed a twisted and violent personality. Unlike other primarchs, Curze did not seek glory or conquest, but instead sought to punish the wicked and expose the corruption that he believed was rampant throughout the Imperium.

Curze's methods were brutal and merciless. He employed terror tactics to instill fear in his enemies, believing that only through suffering could true justice be achieved. His reign of terror left a bloody trail across the galaxy, and he became feared as one of the darkest and most dangerous primarchs in the Warhammer 40k universe.
