Materials

- Worsted weight yarn (approximately 200 yards for a child's size, 300 yards for an adult's size)
- Size 8 (5 mm) knitting needles
- Yarn needle

Gauge

18 stitches and 24 rows = 4 inches in garter stitch

Sizes

- Infant: 12 inches wide by 18 inches long
- Child: 18 inches wide by 24 inches long
- Adult: 24 inches wide by 30 inches long

Instructions

For all sizes, cast on the following number of stitches:

- Infant: 60 stitches
- Child: 90 stitches
- Adult: 120 stitches

Row 1: Knit all stitches.

Repeat Row 1 until the kerchief reaches the desired length.

Bind off all stitches.

Weave in loose ends.

Finishing

To block the kerchief, dampen it with water and lay it flat on a towel. Gently stretch the kerchief to the desired size and shape, and allow it to dry completely.

Variations

This pattern is very versatile, so you can easily customize it to create a unique kerchief. Here are a few ideas:

- Use different colors of yarn to create a striped or variegated kerchief.
- Add a lace edging to the kerchief for a more feminine touch.
- Embroider or crochet a design onto the kerchief for a personalized look.
- Make a larger or smaller kerchief by adjusting the number of stitches you cast on.

Tips

- Be sure to check your gauge before starting to knit. This will help you ensure that your kerchief is the correct size.
- If you're a beginner knitter, don't be afraid to ask for help. There are many resources available online and in your local community.
- Have fun! Knitting should be a relaxing and enjoyable experience.
